President's Message

Our RSPH Alumni Board is consistently one of the most active and productive among all of Emory's graduate schools, and this year was no exception. Last September our 13-member board laid out an ambitious strategy that focused on creating more opportunities for alumni to connect and learn more about each other's contributions... Alumni in Action

Rollins Alumni Earn Top Honors
Congratulations to our 2014 RSPH Alumni Award Recipients Katie Wootten Deal 05PH and Dr. Alawode Oladele, 93PH. Read about their accomplishments and join us for a special luncheon honoring them on September 19.

Call for APHA presenters
Are you presenting at the American Public Health Annual Meeting this November? Tell us about it so we can spread the word among your fellow Rollins alumni.

Class Notes
Recently married? Published an article or book? Earned an award or promotion? Read what your fellow alumni are doing.

Remember, news and information are sent based on your mailing address so updating your information is important! It's easy and will keep you connected to those who can help you most.
Engage & Connect

Call for Mentors
Mentor-Mentee relationships provide RSPH alumni and students the opportunity to connect and develop professionally. Learn more about the experiences of some participants of the nation's largest public health school mentoring program and about how you can get involved.

Rollins launches new alumni webinar series
Hold the date! Join us on Friday, September 12 at noon EDT for the launch of a new webinar series for RSPH alumni. Renowned experts Dr. Jeremy Hess 03PH and Daniel Rochberg will present the impacts of and response to global climate change as it pertains to health. Registration coming via email soon!

Opportunities to connect
Looking for ways to connect with RSPH, the Emory community or tap into the greater public health community, we can help! Connect professionally, socially, online or in-person. Attend one of our upcoming events, take a peak at our list of recommended conferences or click on any of the icons below to get started.

Careers & Networking

Career Tip: Leveraging local connections
When RSPH alumna Amy Metzger 99PH moved to Cincinnati she sought out her local Emory Alumni Chapter and is now reaping the benefits of getting to know alumni from across all of Emory's schools. Learn how you can, too.

Loving LinkedIn
LinkedIn has become a powerful tool for career networking. Learn how to make the most out of your LinkedIn profile.

"Dear Sheba..."
In this issue Sheba Ehteshami 11PH is addressing the barriers that still remain in the workplace for women and providing some tips for overcoming them. Read more.
Around Rollins

Get REAL!
The Rollins Earn And Learn (REAL) Program provides our students the opportunity to apply the skills they have learned in the classroom while also providing health-related organizations with highly qualified and motivated employees. It's a unique offering that sets our school apart from all other schools of public health. Learn how you can get involved or hire a student.

BIOS department celebrates milestone
We're celebrating 50 years of Biostatistics at Emory on October 16-18. Join us! Registration is now open.
