

Alumni in Action

A Message from our Board President

"Serving humanity is at the heart of our mission." This quote, recently stated by President Claire Sterk, reaches the core of not only our institution, but also the values the university sought to instill in us as students. During these times of unrest and uncertainty, it is that much more important for us, as a community, to maintain what is so dear and true -- as leaders, providers, researchers, teachers, and guardians -- the persistent and relentless advocacy for public health in our country and around the world. Read more.

FACULTY
& Staff
NEWS

Alumni Spotlight: Jerusha Barton, MPH

In honor of National Birth Defects Awareness month, we're shining a spotlight on Rollins alumna Jerusha Barton 14PH and her role as the Infant Zika Birth Defects Epidemiologist at the Georgia Department of Public Health. Read.

GET Involved

Pathways to Public Health: La'Mont Sutton, MPH

The opportunities in public health are endless. This month, we're asking recent alumnus La'Mont Sutton 14PH to share his path to becoming a Research Project Coordinator for the Quality Measurement team at the Yale/YNHH Center for Outcomes Research and Evaluation. Read.

STAY
Connected

Finding Love at Rollins

Some say the best part of grad school isn't the education; rather it's the people you meet and the relationships you develop along the way. In honor of Valentine's Day, we're featuring some couples that might never have met if not for their time at Rollins.

Read our Rollins love stories.

Upcoming EVENTS

Rollins goes "All In" for Emory's First Day of Giving

Last week Emory celebrated its first day of giving, All In A Day: 24 Hours of Change, and Rollins went above and beyond in answering the call to go "all in." According to preliminary results, Rollins alumni, faculty, staff, students and friends raised over $24,000 with 230 gifts! Funds raised from the day will provide vital resources for our school, supporting areas such as scholarships, research, and experiential learning. THANK YOU to everyone who gave throughout the day and made our first day of giving a success!

Class Notes

Moved to a new city? Recently married? Published a book or article? Earned an award or promotion? Tell us your news! Then read what your fellow alumni are doing.

Careers & Networking

Career Tip: Leveraging your Digital Professional Network

The digital age has provided us with more opportunities to connect with others than ever before. You no longer have to wait for in-person networking events to roll around to meet others in your field. Take a look at some of the online resources available to help you to network anywhere and at any time with people across the globe!

Career Advice: Giving Constructive Feedback

This month we've asked Emory career coach and Rollins alumna, Marcy Victor 01PH, to share her insight on how to offer constructive feedback to your supervisor in the most positive and effective ways.

Rollins Connects: Upcoming Events

Looking for some fun, social ways to connect with your fellow Rollins alumni? Recently moved to a new city and need to make new friends? Living abroad and can't make the local events? From lectures and virtual networking to happy hours and webinars, we've got a little something for everyone no matter where you live. View events.

Don't forget -- we send news and information based on your mailing address, so keeping your contact information current is important! It's easy to do and keeps you connected to those who can help you most in your career. Update your information now.

