Accessing Scholarship Resources

Scholarship and writing skills are invaluable for public health professionals and scholars. If you have questions about citations or good scholarship, please use this document to help orient yourself to the different resources available at Emory and beyond.

1. Google
   a. Start with a phrase like “How to _______” and fill in the blank with your query.
   b. Use the quick guide as an orienting example. Confirm your citation with Purdue OWL (see instructions below).

   ![Google search result for APA citation]

   Quick answer (Confirm with Purdue OWL)

2. Purdue OWL
   a. Click on this link → https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/10/
   b. Use the sidebar to search for the desired reference style (i.e. electronic sources, books, periodicals, etc.).

   ![Purdue OWL reference list for electronic sources]
3. Rollins Academic Writing Center
   a. Click on this link to make an appointment with a tutor: https://www.sph.emory.edu/rollins-life/resources/academic-writing-resources/index.html