Dear Second Year Students,

We are one month closer to your Commencement! Please find the monthly updates regarding both the Emory Commencement Exercises and the Rollins School of Public Health Graduation Ceremony.

Commencement Ceremonies
There are two Commencement ceremonies that students may attend on Monday, May 13, 2019. The Emory University Commencement exercises, which take place in the morning on the main quad, includes all of the traditions of Emory University and includes all schools from Emory. The RSPH Diploma Ceremony takes place later in the afternoon. Note that tickets are not required for either of the ceremonies.

RSVP for Graduation
Current Students and Faculty with an Active Emory Account: RSVP here.

Summer 2018 and Fall 2018 Graduates: RSVP here.

Graduates participating in the Diploma Ceremony are required to RSVP by Monday, April 29 at 5:00PM. It is mandatory to RSVP in order to participate in the Rollins Graduation Ceremony.

Other Requirements:

Graduation applications for Spring 2019 graduates were due Friday, February 8, 2019.

· Students now must complete this form and pay the $25.00 late fee to the Student Financial Services Office – 101 Boisfeuillet Jones Center (B Jones Building). Proof of $25.00 late fee payment (receipt) and the paper degree application must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Office in the School of Public Health (Located in the Office of Admission and Student Services)

  o Please note that if you have already completed your academic program (Summer 2018 and Fall 2018 graduates) and have received your diploma, you do not need to complete this step.

Regalia (Cap and Gown)
If you did not attend Grad Fair on February 20th, no worries! Please note:
· Regalia from the Barnes and Noble at Emory University must be purchased in-person by Wednesday, March 20. Please note that sizes of regalia are not guaranteed and are sold on a first-come, first-serve basis.
· Regalia may be pre-ordered online through March 7, 2019.

All Emory student regalia is custom-made and the vendor requires time to produce the regalia.

Please let me know if you have any further questions!

Sincerely

Joanne
